

CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to give clear guidance on what our core values are and what is expected of any worker of Multilec Engineering Pty Ltd.

Scope

This policy applies to all workers that work at any site or any place of work operated by Multilec Engineering Pty Ltd.

Aim

Multilec Engineering Pty Ltd aims:
to promote our core values to all workers;
to encourage all workers to abide by our core values;
to promptly investigate and take decisive action against any person that breaches this policy.

Core Values

Our core values represent who we are and what we consider integral to our operation:

honesty
integrity
punctuality
respect
accountability.

Honesty

Honesty is an attribute of trustworthiness and is fundamental in any person and is expected of all our workers and contractors. Honesty is the best policy.

Integrity

Personal integrity is expected of all our workers and contractors. It embodies honesty and reflects on your morals. Morals are about doing what is right regardless of your feelings or personal preferences.

Punctuality

Punctuality shows discipline and respect for others. It shows professionalism for the individual and our company. Someone that shows a pattern of being late does not demonstrate self-motivation and could give our company a bad reputation.

Respect

Having respect for others in the workplace and our customers is paramount. Respect includes treating others the same way you would like to be treated.

Accountability

Taking ownership of making a mistake, or if in a supervisory/management position taking ownership of a worker's mistake or conduct shows great leadership and professionalism and is highly regarded. Multilec Engineering Pty Ltd expects all workers to lead by example and take accountability of their actions.

Responsibilities

Both PCBUs and workers have a role to play in enforcing acceptable conduct. All workers are required to:
review/read this policy and seek clarification from management where required;
abide by this policy while completing work-related duties and at any time while representing Multilec Engineering Pty Ltd;
support and contribute to Multilec Engineering Pty Ltd's aim of promoting its core values.

All workers have a responsibility to:

take reasonable care of their own health and safety, including physical & mental health;
take reasonable care that their actions do not affect the health and safety of other people in the workplace;
act with integrity at all times;
respect others and be accountable at all times for their actions, behaviour and conduct;
